

Towards a Robust M&E System

Yeong Sheng (John) Tey (PhD)
 April Grace Pamplona
 Diana Sadili
 Universiti Putra Malaysia

Jennifer Lucey (PhD)
 University of York

Learning from Full Members

Consultation: 2011-2013
Version 1: 2014
Improvement sessions: 2015
Version 2: 2016

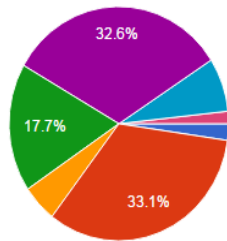

Version 1: 2014
Improvement sessions: 2015
Version 2: 2016

Standards Share

Survey Findings of Sustainability Priorities

- Banks & investors
- Consumer goods manufacturers
- Environmental NGOs
- Oil palm growers
- Processors and traders
- Retailers
- Social & development NGOs

Planet

People

Profit

Sustainability Standard

5

Intended (Suggested) Change: M&E Workshop

Impacts

Outcomes

Outputs

Planet

Preserve ecosystem services

Efficient use of agri resources

BMPs

People

Basic needs are met

Access to resources

Fair labor practices

Profit

Market domination

Productivity, quality, marketability & profit

Enhance efficiency & effectiveness

RSPO

Leader of standards

Efficient systems

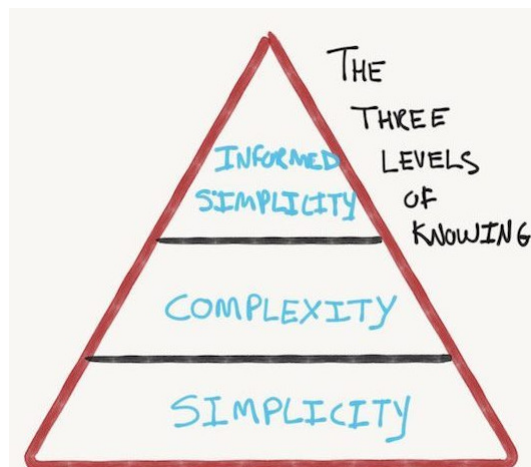

Capacity building
Active stakeholder engagement

6

Intended (Suggested) Change: World Cafe

Goals	Conservation and enhancement of biodiversity and natural resources			Better livelihoods and respect of human rights and open and transparent participatory processes for everyone			The leading sustainability platform
Impacts	Soil & water conservation	Biodiversity & forest protection	Reduction in net GHG emissions	Enhancing labor rights	Human rights	Better livelihoods	Profitability	Higher market uptake	Economic resilience
Outcomes	Water quality, quantity and conditions  Soil quality, quantity, and conditions	Conserve biodiversity, ecosystem services, forest landscape, peat swamp forests, riparian forest zones  Free from fire	Carbon sequestration  Reducing emissions from deforestation, peatland degradation & operations	Equity in participatory rights across all levels of RSPO	Achievement of rights matching those set out in human rights (i.e. access to education)	Equitable distribution of RSPO profits among all levels of supply chain	Productivity	Greater market demand (quantity & quality)	Assurance
Outputs	Minimize erosion  Reduce fertilizers  Increase biodiversity  Free from fire	Integrated wildlife corridor  Maintaining viable population  Conserve & enhance of high values for livelihood of RSPO community	Better knowledge of locations and distribution of HCV species and habitat  Prohibit illegal deforestation  Land rehabilitation  Free from fire	Well managed set aside areas  Prohibit illegal deforestation  Land rehabilitation  Free from fire	Methane captures  Organic fertilizers  Optimizing fertilizer use	Structure of participatory needs to be built within RSPO  Living wages	Formation of participatory groups of lower level stakeholders (i.e. workers, smallholders)	Adoption of P&C	Awareness

7

8